FROM THE Principal's Desk

Dear Parents, Students, and Staff,

As we move ahead in this academic year, I am pleased to share the incredible energy and enthusiasm that has filled our school campus in the past few weeks. Each event has been a learning experience and an opportunity for our students to showcase their talent, creativity, and commitment to cultural values.

We began this month with a warm and heartfelt celebration of Teachers' Day. It was heartening to witness students expressing their gratitude and respect for their teachers, recognizing the pivotal role they play in shaping young minds. The event was filled with joy, performances, and touching moments that highlighted the deep bond between our students and their educators.

Next, we welcomed the auspicious festival of Ganesh Chaturthi with great fervor. Our students and staff came together to decorate the school premises and offered prayers, embracing the spirit of unity and devotion. The celebrations not only reflected our rich cultural heritage but also taught us the values of wisdom, prosperity, and togetherness.

In alignment with our commitment to promoting linguistic pride, we celebrated Hindi Diwas, emphasizing the importance of our national language. The students actively participated in various competitions and programs that highlighted the beauty of Hindi, fostering a sense of respect and pride for our mother tongue.

Adding a dash of creativity and teamwork to our school activities, we organized an Inter-House Board Decoration Competition. The enthusiasm and innovative ideas of the students were truly remarkable, and it was a joy to see how each house worked diligently to represent their themes artistically. This competition served as a platform for students to exhibit their artistic talents and collaborative spirit.

Lastly, we are now preparing for the Half-Yearly Examinations. This is a time for our students to reflect on their learning, focus on their studies, and give their best. I encourage all our students to remain determined and committed to their academic goals.

As we continue our journey this year, I want to thank all the parents, teachers, and students for their unwavering support and enthusiasm in making each event a grand success. Together, we are building a vibrant and dynamic learning community.

Warm regards,

Inter House Board Decoration Competition

Crafting Timeless Celebrations!

Our school recently organized an exciting Inter-House Board Decoration Competition, with themes that resonated deeply with students and teachers alike: Teachers' Day, Ganesh Puja, Exam Stress, and Exam Stress Management and Preparation for Half-Yearly Exams.

All four houses—displaying their creativity and teamwork—enthusiastically took part in the competition, designing vibrant and thought-provoking boards. Each board beautifully reflected the theme it represented, whether it was honoring the role of teachers, celebrating the spirit of Ganesh Puja, or offering practical tips for managing exam stress and preparing for the upcoming half-yearly exams.

The competition not only showcased the artistic talents of our students but also brought forth their understanding of important issues and cultural values. The efforts and creativity of each house were commendable, making the event both educational and visually captivating.

The Festival of EXAMS

Examinations are vital in the CBSE system as they assess students' knowledge, understanding, and skills. They promote consistent learning, encourage discipline, and help identify strengths and weaknesses.

They help to identify strengths and areas for improvement, providing a mid-term evaluation of the knowledge gained. To encourage the regular habit of studying and to evaluate the knowledge gained VVCS Raigarh conducted Half - Yearly Examination for classes I - VIII and Periodic Test - II for classes IX - X. These exams encourage regular study habits and prepare students for the final board exams. Teachers use the results to give constructive feedback, while students gain experience in time management and exam techniques. Overall, half-yearly exams foster discipline and set a solid foundation for future academic success.

Have Clarity, No Confusion

Having clarity is the key to live a life of peace and stability. But we often find ourselves wondering how to be, what to do or which direction to step towards.

When the mind enters a confused state, it creates uncertainty, irritation, anxiety and fear. We struggle to move forward and feel lost. Clarity is vital for life of peace and stability. Sometimes our mind is clouded with confusion.

In this agitated inner state, mind creates too many thoughts, and the intellect cannot process them smoothly. So we struggle to take right decisions or timely decisions.

Follow these steps to take the path of clarity -

- Confusion cannot be sorted from thinking at the same level. You need to be calm and elevate your thoughts.
- Meditate for at least 15 minutes every morning. It cleans your mind of emotional toxins and silences it. Your intuition or wisdom gets activated
- In the stillness of your mind, put forth your question and wait for answers. Be assured that right answers come either immediately or later.
- Whether it is confusion in beliefs, decisions, career or relationships, solution is within you. Even if you take advice from others, take decisions based on your intuition.
- Clarity helps you take charge of the situation and choose right responses. Sit back and let's affirm how we shift towards clarity -

I am a wise being ... my every thought is right ... I energise my mind every morning ... I meditate for 15 mins ... I strengthen my intuition daily ... I choose my response ... I decide what is right for me ... every decision is based on my values ... my intuition gives me the right answer ... my every decision is accurate ... I think right ... I think less ... I am powerful!

"समाधान" के बारे में सोचने पर रास्ते मिलते हैं

The Shadow Of GODDESS

When I see a women,
I see the shadow of a Goddess.

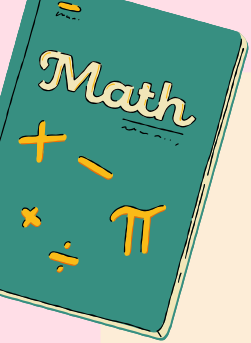

When she is fighting against
The world for her child,

When she priorities
everything before herself,
When she faces the problems with a smile so gorgeous,
She looks like a shadow of goddess!

I think the women all around the world are the Shadows of goddess.

The Journey Of LEARNING

The sun is rising, bright and clear
A new day starts, there's much to cheer
With books in hand and minds a glow, into the world of thought, we go.

In every class, with every page
We step into a broader stage
Maths, Science and history too
Each brings something new!

Equations dance like stars in flight
History shines with the lessons bright
The words we read, the thoughts we share
Help us grow and show we care

So let us dream, and reach, and strive,
with passion burning, hopes alive.
For every lesson is a key
To open doors to what we we'll be.

With every step, with every year
We'll grow in strength and face our fear
And though the path is still unknown
Together we'll make it our own!
